AILING NEYMAR SCORES

ALL FOUR AS BRAZIL ROUT

JAPAN

By Patrick Johnston

Neymar shrugged off a cold to score all four goals in a sumptuous display as five-times world champions Brazil routed an under-strength Japan 4-0 in a friendly on Tuesday to maintain Dunga's perfect start since returning as coach.

The Brazilian skipper took his impressive tally to 40 goals in 58 matches after his strikes against the Asian champions on a patchy National Stadium pitch deemed "far short of international standards" by Singapore's Football Association.

TRIVIA:

Neymar was born on February 5, 1992. He plays for FC Barcelona.

LOCAL TEEN WINS

CHANCE OF A LIFETIME

Kian Kamber was very excited on October 17, 2014, when he got a chance to meet his favourite soccer player, Neymar. Kian had entered a contest at a Whitecaps game. His name was drawn at the end of the game. The prize was to spend an entire day with his soccer hero.

A private jet picked Kian up from Vancouver airport and flew him to Barcelona, Spain. From there, he took a limousine ride to the Barcelona Soccer Stadium, where Neymar was waiting. Neymar gave Kian an official soccer jersey and then Neymar taught Kian how to improve his shooting. Afterwards, the two went out for ice cream. Kian said it was the best day of his life!

TRIVIA:

At age 19, Neymar won the 2011 South American Footballer of the Year. He won it again a year later!
